What is "Improvisational Theater"?

Improv isational theater or "improv" is theater that is made up right up on the spot. No script! You are the actor, director and writer! Improvisational theater teaches important skills such as teamwork, quick thinking, creativity, and leadership.

How can your child benefit from IMPROV?

Improv helps to develop self-confidence, communication skills, team building, quick-thinking, problem solving, social skills, language skills, and self expression.*

(*All of which are essential in making a double layered chocolate cake)

What Folks are saying about Comedy Fu

"I took their workshop and now I have robotic super strength!" Steve of Las Vegas

"I learned so much from Comedy Fu, I can now wink with both eyes!" Jane of the Far East.

"If I had known about Comedy Fu, I never would have taken kung fu all these years...!" Chuck Norris
(In reality Chuck Norris never took kung fu.)
